

Mary Ann Lawrence from the Center for Workforce Learning is assisting in the search for a Career Center Manager to work under the direction of a local workforce area Executive Director and reporting to the Deputy Director of Operations. The local area is a large metropolitan area based in Memphis, Tennessee and is looking for a Manager to direct the operations of the local workforce system comprised of comprehensive and satellite one-stop centers. The position will be a Memphis City employee. The successful candidate must have knowledge of the WIA law and regulations and local service delivery. The position will be filled with an individual who is results oriented, adept at achieving efficiencies and committed to and experienced in Baldrige continuous improvement principles. Knowledge of Six Sigma helpful. A Bachelor's degree in Business or Public Admin and a minimum of seven years experience in WIA program management with five years supervisory experience is preferred. The salary range is $56,000 to $87,000. Interested parties should email qualifications, resume and 3 references to Desi Franklin, Memphis WIB Director at Desi.Franklin@memphistn.gov